

Citing an Article from History Study Center

History Study Center has a CITATION GENERATOR that will make your MLA citation for you. Directions for using it are below the manual formatting directions.

Manually Formatting an MLA citation for a History Study Center Article:

Author. "Title of Entry." Original Source. Original Source Publication Information (depends on whether source is historical document, journal, study unit). History Study Center. ProQuest LLC, Current Year. Web. Date of Access.

Examples: (Includes a Historical Document, a Journal Article, and a Study Unit)

"A Date Which Will Live in Infamy." Inside American History. Abingdon/Cambridge: Helicon, 2007. History Study Center. ProQuest LLC, 2016. Web. 24 May 2014.

Hopkins, June. "A Date Which Will Live: Pearl Harbor in American Memory." Canadian Journal of History 40.1 (Apr 2005): 143-144. History Study Center. ProQuest LLC, 2016. Web. 24 May 2014.

"The Origins of the Second World War." History Study Center. ProQuest LLC, 2016. Web. 24 May 2014.

General Guidelines: (These include common editing that is needed in the Citation Generator)

Author's name is Last Name, First Name

Capitalize all important words in the title, even if not capitalized in original

Titles of articles are in "quotation marks"

Titles of original sources and History Study Center are in italics

Periods are used to separate major sections in each entry

(Author. "Article." Title of Source and Publication info. History Study Center.
Web. Date of access.)

All punctuation should be followed by one space

Date format: Day Month Year (ex: 19 Jan. 2016)

Abbreviate the names of all months except May, June and July

Use n. pag. if original page number(s) are not supplied for journal articles

Double space and alphabetize citations
